Dine with old friends and colleagues, meet new members and make connections at the CPRS Vancouver annual general meeting and 2003/04 season kick-off party and dinner.

At the AGM, members will be asked to elect directors and officers, and to conduct other business as necessary. Several senior members of our profession will be honoured with lifetime memberships for their contribution to the practice of public relations.

Note: Please indicate if you require a vegetarian meal

Keeping track

Pauline Buck has been appointed Communications Manager for the Kidney Foundation of B.C. This permanent, three-day-a-week position will see Buck working with a strong group of staff and volunteers dedicated to helping people live with kidney disease while maintaining her regular freelance clients

Correction

The last Essentials incorrectly stated Big Brothers of Greater Vancouver is looking for men willing to share personal stories about mentoring. In fact, they are looking for both men and women. CPRS Vancouver members are invited to get in touch with Kim Struthers @ 604-876-2447 or Judy McLarty @ 604-740-5839 for information.

Got news? The next Essentials comes out October 1, 2003. Deadline for submissions: noon Sept. 25, 2003. Please send them to s.hall@telus.net. Submissions may be edited for brevity, accuracy, clarity, or taste. (c) 2003.
