Canadian Public Relations Society

Vancouver Society

Recruiting
CREATIVE COPYWRITER

CPRS Vancouver exists to support public relations professionals in the Lower Mainland by fostering professional growth and career goals. We do this by:

- Promoting high professional standards and encouraging our members to earn their Accreditation in Public Relations (APR).
- Adding value to the membership experience by offering accreditation support, mentorship programs, networking events, speaker series, and professional development for all levels.
- Striving to advance professional stature of public relations in Canada through the cooperation with other regional Member Societies and with like-minded organizations in other countries.
- Serving the public interest by upholding a code of professional standards and advocating for ethics in the industry.
- Encouraging student professional development by working closely with local PR programs at colleges and universities throughout Metro Vancouver to support entry to the profession.
- Providing opportunities to connect with other practitioners in this exciting, evolving field.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND REQUIREMENTS

- You can commit to this position for no less than 1 year.
- You are responsible and accountable.
- Support the management and promotion of the PRestige Awards Program. The volunteer will support a variety of activities including, but not limited to:
    - Creating social media copy to promote program deadlines.
    - Write blog stories profiling award winners.
    - Support the PRestige Awards Director with program operations as needed.
    - Participate in discussions around how best to promote the awards program and encourage participation from members and non-members.

TO APPLY CLICK HERE.